to that first school in Arcadia. Presently 9,703 school children take the bus to Arcadia's 11 strategically located schools.

By careful planning, an ever expanding citizenry has provided the facilities for educating all local students from kindergarten through high school.

IT IS APPROPRIATE, then, on the occasion of the sixtieth anniversary of public education in Arcadia, that recognition of the historical development of the school system be the theme of the 1964 Arcadian.

To the thousands of students who have teemed through the schools in the intervening 60 years, to the citizens who have given unselfishly of their time and money to build a good educational foundation for their children and to the hundreds of faculty members who have imparted knowledge to those children, the 1964 Arcadian is proudly dedicated.

IT IS A FAR CRY from the pastoral quiet of an Early California rancho, stretching for miles through gently rolling pasture lands and coming to rest at the foot of the San Gabriel Mountains to the CITY OF ARCADIA, 1964.

No longer do sleek herds of cattle roam the reaches, no longer do painstaking laborers cultivate and irrigate vast stands of orange and and lemon trees. No longer do gritty clouds rise as ox-drawn carts and stylish rigs traverse the dusty trails and roads of E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin's Rancho Santa Anita.

IT IS A FAR CRY to the present City of Arcadia, for in 60 years this rancho has become a city of fine homes, well maintained thoroughfares, good community facilities and outstanding schools.

IT IS A FAR CRY from the handful of pinafore and knicker-clad children who, in 1904, trudged over the pasturelands and dusty roads

Planned About a Central Rally Court, Classrooms

Crossing the Rally Court on their way to morning classes, hurrying students pass the snack bar, the hub of activity during snack and both lunches.

Lacy foliage of specimen jacaranda trees dot the western entrance of the Arcadia High Campus.

Are Situated to Provide Maximum Convenience.

IN ORDER to provide modernistic grounds for atmosphere and beauty while giving maximum classroom space, Arcadia's campus is built around a central Rally Court.

Tile tableaux of authentic Indian design decorate the north entrance along Campus Drive and the west walls of the east corridor classroom buildings. These tile designs symbolize a way of life at Arcadia by depicting particular words or ideas in the Student Pledge to Arcadia High School.

Classroom and administrative buildings are constructed in parallel rows with covered corridor connectives. The rooms, renumbered this year to help avoid confusion, are assigned by subject area. To utilize natural sunshine as much as possible, windows are situated on the north side of the classrooms, with doors at the north and south.

Modern architectural details enhance the beauty of corridors as lacy jacaranda trees spread a pattern of light and shadow over grassy lawns which separate classroom units.

Curriculum materials, displayed in campus showcase in the west corridor, depict California's early history.

Lingering Under Sunny Skies or Scurrying for Shelter

California's "liquid sunshine" bespatters hurrying students as they run across the Rally Court. Since rainy days are a rarity, excitement is rampant.

Arcadia Students Enjoy Their Modern and Attractive Campus.

An appreciative student

MODERNLY designed and attractive, the full shrubbery and grassy lawns, examples of variegated ivy, and other plants are a part of the campus of which all Arcadians are justly proud.

Against the magnificent northerly background of the San Gabriel mountains, Arcadia High School is a familiar landmark in the rapidly growing community of Arcadia.

The newest addition of the campus is a red brick wall which was presented to the school by the class of '62. Bearing a gold letter, the words "Arcadia High School" the wall measures twenty-one feet by four feet and faces Campus Drive.

The campus is built around a centrally located Rally Court for the purpose of giving students a place to assemble. Bordering the rally court are the snack bar, the student store, and the cafeteria. These facilities are located in the intermediate area of the court so that they may be utilized by the student during the snack and lunch periods.

With the playground behind the Little Theatre was constructed adjacent to Campus Drive so that it may be used by both civic and school groups with minimum disturbance to students while classes are in session.

Attended the first school in Arcadia in September of 1903 in a packing shed donated by Lucky Baldwin the founder of Arcadia. Located at the corner of Santa Anita and Felling Leaf which is now Huntington Drive, the first school had an enrollment for its first year of fifty-eight pupils. Some of the students had been transferred to the school from adjoining school districts.

SCHOOL OPENED for the first time in Arcadia in September of 1903 in a packing shed donated by Lucky Baldwin the founder of Arcadia. Located at the corner of Santa Anita and Felling Leaf which is now Huntington Drive, the first school had an enrollment for its first year of fifty-eight pupils. Some of the students had been transferred to the school from adjoining school districts.

Having never heard of a school bus some walked long distances from home to school with sunburn and dust a wholesome part of their formal education. They either trudged afoot or rode a pony or the family rig if they were fortunate enough to own one.

The "shed" remained in use as the only school in Arcadia for four years. Student enrollment for these years was recorded as the following: in 1904, 46 pupils; in 1905, 35 pupils, and in 1906 42 pupils.

A plaque now commemorates the site of the first school. The dedication services were held in celebration for Arcadia's sixtieth anniversary in Oct., 1963. Students who attended the school were on hand to help present the plaque.

Decline in mission wealth began when 1822 the Mexican government succeeded Spain in California. By the middle of the Mexican era in California the Rancho Santa Anita became public land of the Mexican government.

In May, 1841, Hugo Reid became the first individual to hold an official land grant to Rancho Santa Anita. During the two decades following the death of Hugo Reid the title to Rancho Santa Anita passed through numerous hands one of whom was Elias Jackson "Lucky"
 Baldwin the founder of Arcadia.

As a result of a petition requesting the incorporation of the City of Arcadia of 1903 was a sprawling community of many square miles but with a paucity of population shaded and charming under its thousands of trees but coated with dust from its roads and appealing as a place for enjoyable home life.

Following incorporation the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors authorized the establishment of the Arcadia
 City School District on August 3, 1903.
 The system was to provide the grammar school education for students living in Arcadia, Monrovia, Chapman, and Sierra Madre.

School was held for the first time in the newly formed city in a packing shed donated by "Lucky" Baldwin. The origi-
 on the preceding page.

A plaque commemorating the first school's site was dedicated in 1963 by the Historical Society and the Woman's Club.

Officiating at ceremonies marking the site of Arcadia's first school are Mrs. Michael Erickson, Woman's Club President; Mrs. Helen Wyatt, graduate of the second class; R. B. Reizer; and Mrs. Edna Lenz, representative of the Arcadia Historical Society.

The first step in the process of the development of a new product is the identification of a market need. This is often done through market research and analysis. Once a need is identified, the next step is to develop a concept for the product. This involves creating a detailed description of the product and its features. The concept is then refined and developed into a final design. The final design is then used to create a prototype of the product. The prototype is then tested to ensure that it meets the requirements of the market. Once the prototype is approved, the final product is then manufactured and distributed to the market.

ARTHUR H. NORTH

Principal

EFFICIENTLY DIRECTING every phase of the high school program, Principal Arthur H. North is now completing his second year at the helm and feels that, "this has been a wonderful year for Arcadia High School." In addition to many other important duties, Mr. North is held responsible for the interpretation of the high school to the community.

Mr. North began his career in education as a history and mathematics teacher at John Burroughs High School in Burbank. He entered the administrative field as principal of Temple City High School and then went on to San Marcos

High School in Santa Barbara before coming to Arcadia.

A graduate of Whittier College where he received his A.B. and M.A. degrees, Mr. North has also served the college's alumni association as its president.

As the year comes to a close, Mr. North proudly states that, "Arcadia will continue to be a leader among high schools as long as we carry Apache school spirit into all our activities. Let's always 'accentuate the positive—eliminate the negative' and keep Arcadia at the top."

EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE PROGRAM provides students with practical experience in the field. The program is limited to students who are at least 16 years of age.

A minimum of 100 hours of experience in the program is required for students to work in odd times.

GAINING AN INSIGHT into the teaching profession is one of the goals of the Teacher Observation Program. The program is designed for students who are interested in teaching careers. It provides experience in observing elementary, middle, and high school teachers.

Students in the program must be at least 16 years of age and have a minimum B average. They must also be approved for the program.

AN INTERNSHIP TRAINING PROGRAM is also available. Selected students may be appointed as interns to assist in the maintenance of the members of the community. Experience is gained in general office duties and projects.

...FUNDAMENTALS of speaking, reading, writing, and listening are the basis of communicative ability taught in the English department.

Three years of English are required for graduation from Arcadia. Most of the students are introduced into accelerated programs at each of the three grade levels, with other students being assigned to regular or remedial classes as their abilities in the language areas are indicated. Flexibility scheduling permits students to move from one level to another in relation to their achievement.

English II consists of a review of the fundamentals of grammar and the study of more advanced grammar. Vocabulary building is emphasized along with speech.

Composition is studied in the form of term papers or projects, as well as in shorter essays. Poetry in its various forms is emphasized with some emphasis of technical construction.

In the English III course, every effort is made to extend pupils' command of English, to acquaint students with good literature and to emphasize reading for enjoyment.

English IV is designed to review grammar, vocabulary building, and basic skills of reading, spelling, and hand writing.

Creative writing and capitalization on purposeful situations for writing are encouraged at every opportunity.

Under the major areas of speaking, reading, writing, and listening, students actively participate in all phases of the language arts program. Use of grammar, spelling, usage, punctuation, capitalization, penmanship, and vocabulary development is stressed.

Appreciation of literature and newspapers; understanding radio, television, and motion picture films, all contribute to the communicative skills expected of each individual.

Drama, speech, and journalism are offered for each of the three years and serve as electives. Drama students present one and three act plays. Speech students participate in tournaments with other members of the National Forensics League, and advanced journalism students publish the school newspaper and annual.

PERCEPTIONAL SKILLS and creative ability are developed through the teaching of art.

Art I utilizes various media including paint, charcoal, ink, clay, paper, and others. Elements of good design are stressed in the areas of study which are of a comprehensive nature.

Second year art students experiment with more difficult materials, work out more advanced design problems, and increase their ability to organize designs.

Art III and IV students work on independent projects using new media and techniques such as glass mosaics, oil painting, and design; both build upon the second year program by developing the special talents and interests of each student.

TO BECOME ACQUAINTED with the field of Commercial Art, students experiment in advertising layout, cartooning, color theory, and poster production.

They also practice the imaginative use of many styles of lettering and explore the design and production of advertisements, as well as record and magazine covers.

Basic fundamentals in jewelry work, wood carving, leather, and plastic enameling on copper are offered in Handicrafts I. A prerequisite of Handicrafts II is Handicrafts I.

Mathematics Develops Mental Abilities.

ALL STUDENTS preparing for college entrance are, or have been, enrolled in at least two years of mathematics.

Students who do not plan to enter college may enroll in a year of General Math. This course reviews the practical uses of mathematics. Algebra I is required for math and science majors as well as admission to most four year colleges.

After completion of Algebra I and Plane Geometry, students may advance to Algebra II, which is a more intense study of the fundamental concepts of Algebra. Students must have received a "C" grade before advancing to the next subject area.

Plane Geometry may be taken after the completion of Algebra I. This course is concerned with polygons and circles.

Trigonometry is a one semester course consisting of the study of the analytical aspects of the various trigonometric functions. The primary objective is to prepare the student to use trigonometry as a tool in the study of higher mathematics.

Students who have completed trigonometry move on to Solid and Analytical Geometry. Given during the third quarter, Solid Geometry emphasizes the determination of their areas and volume. Lastly, Analytical Geometry emphasizes the application of algebraic process to geometric topics.

Students of outstanding ability and interest are channeled into the accelerated math program. Algebra and Geometry are covered in grades 8 and 9. At the tenth grade level students may take Algebra II, advancing to Trigonometry in the eleventh grade.

The senior year for the accelerated class is Math Analysis. It extends to Trigonometry, Analytical Geometry, introduces Calculus, and also includes Matrix Algebra.

At the junior level any student who does not demonstrate ninth grade performance on a standardized mathematics test is required to enroll for a year of refresher math at the senior level.

TO HELP STUDENTS become more aware of our nation's affairs, as well as world events, courses in United States History, and Civics are part of the Social Studies Curriculum.

Objectives of this area of study are to develop an understanding of our American ideals and American heritage to cultivate the concepts of trust in the dignity of the individual, and to develop a basic knowledge and background of local, national and international communities.

Students who show an above average ability are channeled into an accelerated World History is a one year course at sophomore level. It emphasizes civilizations and cultures of ancient and modern day times.

Also in World History, the student acquires a basic knowledge of politics, government, sociology, religion, economics, and geography. Studying the many civilizations of man with a goal of understanding what he has accomplished, is accomplishing, and may accomplish, in the future is one of the main purposes of the course.

United States History, a compulsory course for juniors, reviews events from colonial times to modern day America. Passage of the Constitution test is required for graduation.

Several electives are offered. Civil War History, a one semester course, describes the dramatic period of American History during the Civil War.

Political Progress of Various Civilizations.

Civics the study and analysis of both local and state government functions is a senior requisite. Ideologies of other governments are considered as well. The disadvantages and advantages of each are debated.

The principles of economics and international relations are also covered in Civics. Part of the course includes a study of the economic system. Both historical and contemporary with stress on American free enterprise. Substantial emphasis is put on relating the foregoing of many socio-economic questions such as world population expansion and distribution of income between nations.

California History engages the study of the progressive period between 1769 and the present. It bridges the development of California under the Indians, Spaniards and Americans.

Psychology and Sociology each one semester electives are offered to seniors. Psychology is designed for the student who desires to examine the field of social psychology and familiarize himself with basic psychological concepts. Areas of learning personality development, vocational aptitudes are thoroughly studied in Psychology.

Sociology involves investigation of sociological processes, comprising group behavior, and an analysis of social interrelationships and techniques.

Home teachers are available to students who are unable to attend school, thus enabling them to keep up their studies.

BASIC SKILLS in construction and repair are taught in the Industrial Arts Department.

Mechanical Drawing offers instruction in architectural and mechanical drawing as well as blue print writing and reading. Prerequisite of Engineering Drawing is a Mechanical Drawing course.

Basic hand skills of electrical appliances are taught in Electronics I and II. Metal Shop I and II teach the machines of the metal industries. Two Wood Shop classes are offered with Wood Shop II having a prerequisite of a recommendation by the teachers.

HOME ECONOMICS classes are designed to provide students for home and family living.

Instruction in clothing, foods, and child care is given in Homemaking I. Interior decorating and advanced foods are taught in Homemaking II.

Foods I has an emphasis on nutrition and good management practices. Advanced Foods, the study and preparation of special diets and foreign foods.

Clothing I and Dress Design stress clothing construction and dressmaker tailoring.

Senior Homemaking offers a comprehensive course for girls with no such previous experience.

STUDENTS who require supplementary instruction by reason of handicaps are served by the Special Education Program. These students attend classes in the school districts which offer classes for their age and special needs.

A program for partially sighted students is provided by the Arcadia Unified School District with each district providing instruction for its mentally retarded students.

Special classes for the partially sighted and totally blind are offered by other districts in the Special Education Program.

PHYSICAL ACTIVITY is essential for proper mental and physical fitness. For this reason, Physical Education is required for all students. That a student's physical fitness is maintained is a primary objective of the Physical Education program.

Through a variety of motor activities, students are encouraged to develop their physical fitness by developing proper technique, knowledge of fundamental skills, and basic motor skills which will be of value in their daily lives.

A student who completes one semester of Modern Dance. A student who participates in the Modern Dance program may receive credit for a regular semester of Physical Education.

For students interested in competitive sports, G.A.A. meets each day for physical education. A student who qualifies as a regular member of the G.A.A. may receive credit for a regular semester of Physical Education class.

Under a regular rotation system, the physical education program includes football, gym, basketball, tennis, track and field, softball, and volleyball.

Regular programs of team and individual sports can be substituted by Tom Tom Girls, flag girls, princesses, and cheerleaders who perform with the Apache band.

Twice during the year, all students are tested for physical fitness by engaging in physical exercises. Records are kept from year to year to measure the progress of each student.

Reviewing students' emergency cards is one of the routine jobs of the attendance secretaries Mrs. Archeva Huff and Mrs. Marilyn Nickless.

ATTENDANCE SECRETARIES Mrs. Marjorie Smith and Mrs. Helen Reimers keep attendance records and re-admit students after absence from school. By helping to keep the main office running efficiently, the secretaries provide an important link between the student body and the faculty administration.

The library provides many references and periodicals as well as college catalogues for student use. Last year 16,050 books and magazines were circulated to students and teachers. Librarians keep a constant supply of paper-bound books, including novels used in English classes.

Twenty-four library monitors help run the library. They prepare the new books for circulation, check books in and out, reserve books, and many other necessary jobs.

Students who become ill during school can seek the services of Mrs. Barbara Treher, the school nurse. She also keeps student health records and re-admits them after long illnesses. Testing vision and hearing and consulting with pupils' parents regarding health problems are a part of the nurse's daily routine.

Cataloging new books and numbering student textbooks are only two of the many functions performed by library clerks Mrs. Lily Sloan and Mrs. Mary Ann Sloan.

Supplying students with necessary items is the function of the Student Store. Such things as school materials, tickets to school activities, student body cards, and information concerning all sports schedules may be obtained at the student store which is open before school, during lunch and snack, and after school.

Mrs. Gladys Waterhouse, a patient and cheerful friend to all Apaches, is the efficient supervisor in charge of the store. In addition to this job, she manages the student body funds.

Keeping all students' records complete and accurate along with compiling and recording students' transcripts with the use of IBM machines are the responsibilities of the secretaries of records, Mrs. Archeva Huff and Mrs. Marilyn Nickless.

The records secretaries aid seniors by sending their school transcripts to the college or universities to which they wish to apply for admission.

THROUGH THEIR PARTICIPATION in a variety of worthwhile activities members of the Parent-Teacher Association have continued to strive for the betterment of student welfare.

Efficient handling and staffing of concessions stands during home football games were continued as the principal fund-raising project under the direction of Mrs. Robert Reed. Ways and Means Chairman. PTA members served coffee, hot dogs, cakes, and candy apples at four booths adjacent to the bleachers.

Another important activity sponsored by the PTA was a series of informal coffee hours held in local homes during the year. Parents of sophomore students met with Principal North and counseling members to discuss the various problems and aspects of high school life.

During the year the PTA also participated in a variety of other activities, including a picnic for the entire school and a series of social events for the faculty and staff.

CONSULTING with students concerning proper school policy and promoting better relations between the administration and the students are the jobs of the Advisory Council.

Students may report other students who they believe have broken a school rule. The accused student is then brought before the Advisory Council where his particular problem is dealt with on a counseling basis.

If the student is found guilty, a suitable punishment is recommended to the administration. Thus, the Advisory Council serves as the judicial branch of Arcadia's student government.

Nine members, of which four are seniors, three are juniors, and two are sophomores, are appointed by Rick Gilchrist, student body vice president and chairman of the council.

Students make written applications and are chosen on the basis of citizenship, responsibility and leadership. The council meets whenever there is a problem to be solved.

Band Camp Prepares Members for Seasonal Debut.

FOR A WEEK before school started, the school orchestra members attended the six-day band camp. Camp B, held in the mountains near Los Angeles, provided the setting for the intensive preparation.

Band camp presented an opportunity for musicians to work together for the first time as they would throughout the year. Students also reviewed special techniques while studying new music for future performances.

Classes were held each morning with subjects ranging from music theory to practice in conducting. Directors from surrounding schools served as instructors.

Marching band practiced various steps and formations for future parades and shows. Song leaders, flag girls, and majorettes studied routines and developed new ones.

Musicians and marchers returned from camp ready to go back to school with memories of the fun they had enjoyed the week before.

Casual clothing was worn at the camp. The students were relaxed and enjoyed the week before school.

Trumpet players review new music and techniques while they prepare for the upcoming season.

Under the pine trees of the 95-foot wind band, the students reviewed the music and the players.

MARKING the sixth consecutive year Arcadia Forensics Club was requested to present a demonstration before the Los Angeles High Forensic Society at Los Angeles State College. With Jack Gerles, John Crum, and Bill Hyde.

Speech group was awarded winning trophies for best speaker in both Novice and Intermediate categories in its competition at Compton High School, which tested participants from 14 southland schools. Among the 40 schools participating in the Stanford Invitational Tournament, Arcadia received a 3-win, 2-loss record.

Rich Oswald, placing first, and Bruce Merritt placing third in the State Qualifying Tournament at Compton College, held Jan. 13-14, put the Arcadia team in a good spot for state and national qualifying position in April.

Three-man team Bill Hyde, John Crum and Bruce Merritt placed second in Debate out of 63 teams at the Claremont Tournament. Reaching the semi-finals in Original Oratory was Bill Hyde. Also Pam Provins and Bruce Merritt made semi-finals in Extempo.

IN ORDER to obtain the honor of being a Forensic Club member, a student must be able to speak, attend tournaments, and win 4 debates and 25 points, and must be a member in good standing of the National Forensic League. Upon becoming a member the real work begins. The debaters must inspect all aspects of their topics, take a side, develop it, present it before their sponsor, Mrs. Marie Carroll, for her advice and finally enter the debates. The beginners, Novice, are not official members until certain requirements are met. Advancing from the Novice category, debaters step into the B-Debate category and gradually become A-Debaters, which qualifies for the state tournaments.

Completing their eleventh year, Forensics Club has held numerous honors. Among these are having the Outstanding Speaker in the House of Representatives and a speaker in the National Congress for two years, Superior Speaker at the District Congress, three championships and first place awards in Extempo at District, State, and National conventions.

SERVING AS a liaison between the individual clubs and the Administration, the Inter Club Council is composed of presidents of all clubs on campus.

The council selects the homecoming theme as well as running the Homecoming theme party. Handling all projects, it also serves as a sounding board for new ideas pertaining to school organizations.

MEMBERSHIP in American Field Service gives Arcadia students a chance to become acquainted with the foreign exchange students. The proceeds of various projects are used to help pay for the exchange students. Meetings with students from other schools are held throughout the year.

On Jan. 8, Arcadia hosted foreign exchange students from surrounding schools. They were guests of a special A.F.S. assembly at which the schools' foreign exchange students spoke about their native lands.

An informal forum was held after school as a question and answer period between foreign guests and Arcadia students.

JUNIOR STATESMEN, the local chapter of a state-wide organization, is a non-sectarian, non-political and non-profit organization with a wide range of work for area students who are interested in various phases of California government.

Early in November, members of the chapter attended the annual state convention of the Southern Branch in Sacramento. There they discussed state government and its new constitution's various parts of California. Members also attended a regional convention in Santa Barbara.

The American flag was honored this year by having Brian McConnel serve as a state officer. As Minister of Government, it was his responsibility to pass over to the young and to state convention.

During the weekly meetings members had the opportunity to increase their knowledge of government functions and procedures through discussion, group and debates.

AS A BRANCH of the National Red Cross organization, the Arroyo Chapter of the Junior Red Cross has helped promote interest in a program of service among high school students.

In an effort to help persons less fortunate than themselves, members of the chapter visited the Santa Anita Sanatorium and brought happiness to the inmates. With a friendly word and a hand to gesture.

With the assistance of Mrs. G. P. Parker, the chapter has been successful in collecting Boxes and has helped the organization to have its annual fund-raising drive. The chapter has also helped the Santa Anita Sanatorium by donating boxes of food.

From explaining the Junior Red Cross to Red Cross working society programs, were shown to members at regular meetings during the year.

Careers in Teaching and Nursing Are Investigated.

FIRST DEGREE was the first step in the career of either nursing or teaching. The Future Nurses and Teachers Clubs have been organized to help girls investigate these careers and to help them decide on a future.

During the month of the Future Teachers Club was held at the University of California at Los Angeles.

American Field Service students gave talks to the club members on education in their native countries. Field trips to various schools in the vicinity helped to further the members' awareness of teaching as a profession and the knowledge of new teaching techniques.

Other activities included working with Open House in education party at the end of the year and movies on the teaching profession.

Checking out books from the library. The Future Nurses Club members are seen here.

COMPOSED of girls interested in the nursing profession, the Future Nurses Club has been organized to give those girls an opportunity to investigate the aspects of this career. The club also welcomes girls who are interested in fields related to nursing such as physical therapy, dental hygienist, and lab technician.

This year's service project for the City of Hope included making tray favors for patients for the Christmas season.

A pot-luck dinner was held at the home of Sue Herrington to bake eighty dozen cookies for a party given to City of Hope patients.

For the past several years, the Woman's Auxiliary of the Methodist Hospital has offered a $300 scholarship to girls interested in pursuing a career in nursing at an accredited college. Recipients of these scholarships are selected on the basis of academic standing, interest in activities, and financial need. Eligibility for these scholarships is not dependent on being a member of the Future Nurses' Club.

As one of the members of the Future Nurses Club, Mary Herrington and Mary Herrington are seen here.

DUCHESSES, a club of the most and most respected clubs on campus, has had the benefit of high school members with a strong background.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Margaret Johnson and Mrs. Dee Park, the club promotes educational activities, and promotes the development of the members' skills and resources.

Instead of the traditional high school activities, the club members were active during the year to help raise money for the club's scholarship fund.

By 1927, a few years after the first Santa Anita school was built, the district was facing a new challenge. The population of the district was growing rapidly, and the existing schools were no longer sufficient. In 1927, the Holly Avenue School was opened in 1927.

The school was built on the site of the old Holly Avenue School, which had been destroyed by a fire. The school was built with a new design, reflecting the growing population and the need for more space.

Then in 1939, an addition was made to the Holly Avenue School. This addition contained 25 classrooms and an auditorium. Its total investment amounted to a total of $223,549.

After World War II brought a continuing increase of student population, building restrictions held back new construction. When restrictions were lifted, the new Santa Anita Elementary was built on the site of the 1913 two-room school.

With the continual influx of new residents and the arrival of the wartime babies, the district's enrollment between 1945 and 1950 doubled to reach a high of 3,226 pupils. New facilities became almost a yearly occurrence with overcrowding an ever-present problem.

In 1948, Hugo Reid School in Santa Anita Village was built. Within three years, an annex to Hugo Reid was begun at a nearby site on Michillinda Avenue.

UNIQUE from the other schools of the Arcadia School District, expansion of the Hugo Reid School resulted in the construction of another school within near proximity of the first.

Hugo Reid Elementary School provides for the third through sixth grades. The original construction contained 9 classrooms with 3 classrooms added in 1949. In 1951, a lunch pavilion and kitchen provided eating facilities with additional cafeteria and administration structures completed in 1955.

Kindergarten, first, and second grades attend Hugo Reid Primary School, built in 1951. With 6 additional classrooms built in 1953, the total cost of the school amounted to $195,731.

Mirroring Spanish architecture, Holly Avenue remains one of Arcadia's oldest schools.

Interrupting a busy Friday

After leading cheers

FILLED WITH ENTHUSIASM for the 63-64 season, the cheerleaders imported their spirit to all A.S.U. students at pep assemblies and other athletic events. Many cheerleaders, both male and female, were elected by students in preliminary voting during the spring. With Janet Ann, Carol, Janet, Dick, Dorothy, and Bob, the group decided to continue the group.

During the season, the cheerleaders traveled to the University of Redlands where, working up to high school cheerleaders, they won first and third place in the crowd and roars. In addition, they also practiced several times a week and weighed the cost was low when they were opened during the year.

High school cheerleaders were exchanged with the Redlands team at the Redlands prior to the varsity game which marked the opening of the cross-town rivalry.

Christmas Activities Climaxed by "An Enchanted Sleigh Ride."

Christmas carols from foreign countries sung by the boys were followed by a reading of the story of the birth of Christ.

Following the carols and the reading of the story, the evening was spent in a social hour with the Christmas Club. A large number of guests were present and the evening was very enjoyable. The day was made with the event of the annual Christmas Banquet.

An Enchanted Sleigh Ride set the holiday mood for the evening. The ride was sponsored by the Junior and Senior Men's Club.

Present in the group of royal courtiers Queen Jo Ann Byrd regaled with the Rose Queen princess, Sue Babin, Junior princess, and Karen Kave, a princess. Following the coronation, the orchestra played the traditional Queen's Waltz.

Acting as the judges of the beauty contest were the faculty members.

UNTIL 1955, with the building of Dana Junior High School, all junior high students attended First Avenue.

The original building of Dana Junior High contained 12 classrooms, a physical education building, an administration building, shop facilities, and cafeteria. With 4 additional classrooms in 1956 and 6 classrooms and a library in 1960 the total cost was brought to $676,174.

MEMORABLE in the lives of present seniors is the knowledge that this is the final class which has attended the high school for four years.

Because of burgeoning enrollments, the district converted to a 6-3-3 system three years ago upon completion of Foothills Junior High and the enlargement and renovation of Dana and First Avenue schools.

Now, all senior high students will be on the Apache campus for only three years.

S. 1. The first of the two cases is the case of a regular polygon. In this case, the area of the polygon is given by the formula

$$A = \frac{1}{2} n s a$$ where n is the number of sides, s is the side length, and a is the apothem. The apothem is the distance from the center of the polygon to one of its sides.
 The area of a regular polygon can also be found by dividing it into n congruent triangles, each with a base of s and a height of a . The area of each triangle is $\frac{1}{2} s a$, and the total area is n times this, or $\frac{1}{2} n s a$.

Bank of America award winners. Seated

RECOGNITION of the personal achievement and service of students in one or several of the fields of study is a goal of the Bank of America award program.

On the following pages, special acknowledgment has been given to those awards which were received prior to April 1, 1964.

In the first headline of the 1964 Arcadian.

It is suggested that a copy of the special Graduation Section of the Arcadia Tribune dated June 14, be retained in back of the Arcadian. This will provide a complete report on all outstanding senior awards for this year.

GRADUATING SENIORS who have made outstanding achievement in many areas of academic endeavor receive recognition through the Bank of America awards program.

In this statewide program which offers substantial scholarships to winners, twelve students from the fields of Liberal Arts, Science and Mathematics, Fine Arts, and Vocational Arts compete with others in their particular field.

Specific Field Winners receive certificates of Merit and General Field winners receive a trophy and the opportunity to compete in zone competition.

The first stage of the competition was the preliminary round, which was held on the 1st of September. The participants were divided into two groups, A and B, based on their age and experience. Group A consisted of 10 players, while Group B had 12 players. The matches were played in a round-robin format, with each player facing every other player in their group. The top two players from each group advanced to the quarter-finals. The quarter-finals were held on the 2nd of September, and the winners of these matches moved on to the semi-finals. The semi-finals took place on the 3rd of September, and the winners of these matches were the two players who would compete in the final. The final match was held on the 4th of September, and it was a closely contested affair. In the end, Player A emerged as the winner, defeating Player B by a score of 2-1.

FIFTEEN SENIORS were honored this year when they were cited for the excellent work in the fields of science. Faculty members collaborated to decide which students were most outstanding in the three areas of science most highly stressed at Arcadia High School—chemistry, biology and physics.

Students were nominated for the principal's honor because of superior achievement in science courses, but also for the degree of leadership contribution to the science department. These contributions included things like extending work as lab assistants when the principal and experiments class are in the classroom and as extra credit activities.

ONE OF THE MOST important scholarships awarded, the recipient of which was not known at press time, was the Key Club Scholarship given annually to a deserving Arcadia High School senior boy. The scholarship which has previously helped six young men toward careers in the fields of medicine, science and engineering, is a four year

$2,000 scholarship.

Money for the scholarship was raised by Key Club members who effected a city-wide canvass in exchange for a $1 contribution. Donors received key-shaped decals inscribed "I helped a scholar with a dollar." The campaign has annually been endorsed by Arcadia's leading citizens.

Courtroom Drama Was Presented by Senior Thespians.

NIGHT OF MAY 18TH
The year 1961 saw a play with a gripping courtroom drama theme by the senior class of 20 students. On the evenings of May 18, 19, and May 20, the play was presented.

The scene was made complete with judge, jury, witnesses, defendant, and the prosecuting and defense attorneys. The plot was a tale of a woman's passion that glamorous Karen Andre (Jeanne DuBois) had murdered her employer Bruce Faulkner. Her clever defense attorney Stevens (Lee Baroni) seeks to prove her innocence. District Attorney Flint (Phil Dwyer) tries to prove that Karen shot her former employer and then pushed him over her penthouse rail.

Most interesting about the play was the fact that the verdict was given by a jury selected from the audience. The cast had to be prepared to react to either verdict. American court procedures were followed accurately.

Widow (Lee Baroni) restrains Karen Andre (Jeanne DuBois) and District Attorney Flint (Phil Dwyer) comforts Nancy Faulkner (Barbara Weils).

WITH THE COMPLETION of Foothills Junior High, along with the enlargement and renovation of Richard Henry [Name] East Avenue Intermediate school, the district program of the district was changed to a 6-3-3 plan. The resulting shift in school population served to relieve the overcrowded condition at the high school.

Begun in August of 1960 and completed during the summer of 1961, Foothills now houses seventh, eighth, and ninth graders.

Twenty-six classrooms, a multi-purpose cafeteria, a shop building, and physical education facilities are included in the plant.

Junior Varsity Team Breaks Three Year Winning

Under the watchful eyes

AFTER THREE CONSECUTIVE UNDEFEATED seasons, Apaches Junior Varsity were finally beaten in their game in the county, losing 14-0 to the Bulldogs.

Despite the loss, the team's record of 11-1-1 was a fine feat and could not be broken in an excellent season yet it is nothing to boast of after it is the experience that a new team took over the reins this year.

Coach Dave Anderson dropped down from his throne this season, he felt to take command of the team.

In the season opener they were lucky to win a new season. Behind the athletes that lost the first defeat in 27 contests with Bulldogs leading out on top 13-7.

After the initial defeat however the team seemed to get going and to the straight victory homecoming under the powerful kick of the Pasadena Bulldogs. At games end the victory and showed the Apaches had passed 20-7.

Apaches eleven finished the season strong with inspired wins over South Pasadena and Pasadena Monrovia. The Tigers beat 19-0 while the Astoria was the Wildcats were completely vanquished in the time at 45-12.

Among the elite of this year's squad were quarterback Larry Mear, Fullback Bob Collins and End Jim Boyle.

B's and C's Closed Season With Poor Records

THINGS LOOKED grim again this year as Coach Doug Smith's B's managed only 1 win and a tie against seven opponents in a season that saw the B's shut out five times and yield 152 points to opponents.

High point of the season was the victory against El Monte by the B's 9-6, the first B team to defeat the Lions in 10 years.

Varsity Cross Country Finished Second in League

SPORTING seven of the state's top runners, Coach Bill Peck's 1963 Varsity Cross Country Squad finished second in April's varsity league dual meet victories, then out of the top five in the league meet. They beat Alex Kerber 18-37, lost a heart-breaking dual to the Elmore Junior Varsity 28-27, defeated Monte 2-38, and beat cross-town Monte 2-35. The Varsity's outlayed the Elmore Junior Varsity when they finished second.

With only the year's top runners and seniors and sophomores, the future looks bright for next year's team. These runners include Coach Hughes and Don Falesen as well as Dave Smith.

This year the varsity and junior varsity runners were led by Coach Bill Peck. An excellent distance runner himself, Mr. Peck also taught the boys of world history in addition to his coaching duties during the year.

This year's junior varsity squad turned in a fine 5-1 league record, scoring only 51 points to their opponents' 186. In cross-country the low score wins.

Only loss suffered by the junior varsity team in league play was a 26-30 defeat administered by Monrovia, which was the Arcadia JV's first league dual meet loss in four years. Although there is no official junior varsity standings, the Arcadia JV's had the best record in the league.

Topping the list of fine junior varsity runners was Jim Sharp, who was the Junior League JV champion.

Varsity Basketball Squad Ends Season Next

ALTHOUGH IMPROVING little on their pathetic 63 record this year's Varsity basketball performers participated in a rigorous rebuilding program which should reap rich rewards when the next campaign rolls around.

Coch Valls Robinson's quintet managed only three victories in 21 starts, but played some fine basketball during the debacle. A stunning 76-68 victory over CIF-bound El Monte in the season finale attests to this.

Giving the Varsity mentor reason to be optimistic about next season is the fact that several juniors played key roles in the past season's play. Back next year will be Bill Seimsoth, 1964's second highest scorer; Doug Ball, a talented ball handler; Rich Ferguson, Buddy Ward, Chad Hughes, Rick Gable, and Steve Brakebush.

Arcadia affirmed the opinions of several CIF experts, who tabbed them as least likely to succeed in preseason polls, by dropping their first five contests. Arroyo, however, proved a more compatible opponent in their next outing and the Apaches pulled out a 43-38 win in overtime.

The drought continued in the following weeks with Arcadia losing to San Gabriel, arch-rival Monrovia, Mark Keppel, and Whittier in succession.

On Jan. 17 they got on the winning trail again in a game of some historical significance by whipping Montebello 50-49, their first league win in two years.

Losing to El Monte and Alhambra by narrow margins in the same week, the disgruntled casabamen closed out the first round of league play with a 1-5 record.

On Jan. 31, they began their second tour of the loop by hosting Monrovia in another crosstown feud. Arcadia looked like winners until the final minutes when the 'Cats pilfered the lead and won 50-46.

Disheartened by this last loss, the locals seemed to put up little resistance in dropping their next four straight.

Alhambra was their next opponent and for the first time in weeks they really started to look like a basketball team. A 33 point performance by the Moors' Steve Ebey canceled their efforts, however, with a tough defeat.

As though saving their finest for the last, the Apaches, getting 23 points from captain Rick Gilchrist, fought the El Monte Lions in the season's last game to a 66-66 draw at the end of regulation time. They then went on to outpoint the Lions 10-2 in the overtime to pull their third and sweetest victory of the season.

In one of the season's exciting moments, Rick Gilchrist jumps high over defense to hit a jump shot. The Cats edged the Apaches 50-46 to capture second crosstown win.

JV's Has Most Successful Season of Apache Teams.

WITH COACH BOB AVANT leading the JV's from the sidelines, the JV's posted the most successful season record of all the Apache basketball teams.

The team scored thirteen victories in twenty games during the year. A 9-3 record in the Northern Junior varsity league made Avant's first year at the helm a memorable one.

Probably the biggest win of the year was posted against Monrovia when they won by the score of 40-24 to avenge an earlier 45-40 defeat.

Seniors Russ Farnham and Brian Beahrd provided much of the team's punch throughout the campaign.

UNDER THE HEADLINE, Bob Carter finished the year's C league season with a record of 7-5 record in the league competition and an overall 3-5 standing for the year.

After losing 4 of their first 6 games, losing two close games to Rosemead, the major upset losses, 6 of their next 9 games as they found their way to the winners circle. Down the stretch, they were stopping the tired up players as they won 4 of their last 5 games.

D Hoopsters Lacked Height and Depth.

THE D HOOPSTERS finished the season with a 2-17 win-loss record, completing a disappointing season in basketball history.

Under the leadership of Coach Walter W. Cox, the D's 2 wins, both home or 2-0 victories over the Montebello and El Monte teams, in the District 5 games were the only bright spots in the season. A 58-27 win by Keppel over El Monte and a 32-21 loss to Montebello. The D's lost the week's 32-21 loss to Arroyo and 36-34 against the Kings in the final game.

The D's were a fairly ho-hum team, on by an average of 10 points and a lack of depth. The absence of a freshman on the team, the loss of having only a three man squad, was probably the main reason for the poor season.

As captain of the D basketball team, Walter W. Cox has hopes for a good season next year.

Golf Team Has Few Returning Lettermen.

ALTHOUGH very few members of the golf team have returned from last year's varsity, the Agribelters are nevertheless prepared to cap their first year with a successful season. The team is expected to have a few returning lettermen, but the majority will be newcomers.

Starting out, however, the team is in a good position. Terry, who was the school's best golfer last year, is expected to return. He is a first-year student and is expected to average 75 strokes per round.

A major blow came to the golf team when last year's letterman John Dougherty suffered a severe injury to his hand and was unable to compete in several matches.

Starting the season with an 18-9 loss to Gonzales, the Agribelters found the range last at Humboldt, where, losing the Moors 27-3, a 9-2 loss to Klamath followed. Then the team suffered its third setback, losing to Eugene 17-10, and Montezuma 9-20.

This year's squad includes Dougherty and Terry, as well as second-year letterman Bill Kell. Also on the team were last year's letterman Larry Peterson, Al Stapp, Bill Resnick, Dave Lee, Ken Smith and Ben Hobbs.

Since most of the squad are newcomers, there appears to be a good chance for next year's team. Especially promising are Dougherty and Stapp. Also in the low eighties, good scores for the tough Santa Anita Course.

Any ecstasy they may have displayed over this was soon dissolved however as they opened defense of their Partridge Championship with a stunning loss to Whittier 65-30. A 55-40 conquest of Rosemead in another non-league event just before press time helped ease the sting.

Varsity Horsehidlers Blast Off to 5-2

Pausing for a moment to pose for a picture after a victory over the home team.

The new management of the varsity horsehidlers were off to a flying start at the start of the season.

Extensive studies with the aid of the team's new equipment, 5 weeks of training in the first few weeks of play, and a 3-3 conquest of arch-rival Monrovia.

Making the baseball mentors sleep a little more peaceful was the fact that his team boasted 11 underclassmen. Visions of sugar plums must dance in his head when he thinks to the future.

Leading the young crop was the junior, Seinsoth, a gifted pitcher and one of the best in the state. The port side of the team had a 2-1 record and had fanned 22 in fourteen innings of play. Another junior, John Leach, was also holding his own on the mound, and teamed with Seinsoth to fire a no-hitter at San Marino.

Leading the hitting parade was Rick Adams who was swinging the bat at a 5-0 clip.

Starting off with a tremendous 13-2 victory over Azusa, the sophomores turned the tables on Monrovia 16-6 and inched by Keppel, 6-4.

Also potent at the bat was Dan Sladick, who was batting at a 400 clip at presstime.

Varsity Thinclads Remain Undefeated in Six

Coaches Bob Avant and Paul Grey

ANOTHER GREAT YEAR was materializing for Bob Avant's Varsity thinclads as the season prepared for press.

The team, yet to take a single loss, is six early season meets and showed great promise of going through the regular season undefeated.

Although the team lacked the experience necessary to go far in the competition, the team's well-organized and talented athletes contributed much to their early success.

Perhaps the victory of the young season was a 48-45 win over a tough Ahambra cinder track team. Although the Pacific League crown for the Apaches after only three loop meets. The Mudj were killed before the season got under way as the team to beat. Just before presstime a 100-100 defeated Duarte 82-53 in a non-league meet.

Although only Dick Olmsted proved to be the most versatile athlete. Houston consistently did the honors in the hurdles to become the top point getter on the reservation, while the team's top sprinters, with top times of 10 and 12 flat.

B Track

WITH A 6 RECORD at present this year's B track team sports a strong chance to break the 404 record under the 100 ft. They can make the toughest opponent they will find in the next meet.

Facing prey to this year's hunters have been the 1000 F. record, Montene, and 1000 M. record, Keppe, and 1000 ft. on the 1000 ft. record meet, with 1000 ft. E. Montene and the 1000 ft. record meet with the 1000 ft. Montene.

With the 1000 ft. B. record is the 1000 ft. Steve Jones, Marshall, Tanner, Dave Smith, and Rick Santogone, and 1000 ft. are shooting to the 1000 ft. record while Smith is not off the 1000 ft. record mark. Santogone with a top pole vault record so far 2-1 has a good chance to become the highest B. vaulter.

C Track

ARCADIA'S 1964 TRACK TEAM is primarily experienced on the C track, with the lightweight team posing a serious threat toward capturing another Tri-City league title for the reservation.

At present time, the C's stand at 5-1 with a loss to power. Montebello is the only team on their record. The absence of a pair of key performers proved to be the Apaches' undoing in that meet.

Joe Diggs is in the sprints. Ralph Lindsey in the 660. John Anderson in the 1000 yards and Jeff Hergenrather in the pole vault proved to be the top performers of the squad.

The previous quarter were not so kind, in a convincing 68 1/2-17 victory over the state just before the presses started to roll.

Strove to Capture Coveted League Crown.

AT THE TURN of the season, the J.V. tennis team, under the leadership of Coach Robert Cother, strove to capture the coveted League Crown.

The team, composed of the following players, began the season with a record of 10 wins and 2 losses.

To capture the League Crown, the team had to win 12 games in a row.

There is a large number of tennis players in the school, and the team is always looking for new players.

Coach Robert Cother, who has been coaching the team for several years, is a very experienced tennis player. He has won many titles and is a very popular coach.

Daily Exercises Improved Coordination and Physical Fitness,

Team cooperation is an important factor in a successful game of volleyball. Here girls demonstrate proper procedure for volleying the ball.

BY THE TIME GIRLS at Arcadia High School have completed three years of required physical education, they have obtained a great deal of knowledge pertaining to better physical health through exercise.

This specially designed program provides a chance for each girl to participate in team and partner activities, as well as in individual sports. Physical exams involving basic skills are given each semester in physical education classes and a record of the progress made by each girl is maintained.

During the sophomore year, all students are required to take a quarter of modern dance. The sports program offered consists of basketball, volleyball, speedball, tennis, archery, softball, tumbling, golf, and trampoline.

The Tom Tom drill team is a class of the regular athletic program. Tomiakayas is a girls sports organization offered to any girl who is interested in competitive team activities.

Capable Officers Planned Active Junior Year.

In planning Junior class activities, Hughes, President, and Stevens, Vice President, review plans for the past year.

ENTH SASTC members of the class of '65 have assumed the role of responsible citizens. They participated willingly in school activities and have contributed much spirit to their class and to the school.

Let by class officers: Chad Hughes, President; Steve Jones, Vice President; Mike McCoy, Corresponding Secretary; Kay Winslow, Recording Secretary; and Sandy Kerr, Treasurer. The Junior class, aided by sponsor Mr. Gex, completed a successful year.

Junior policy, aware of being upper class men this year, selected and received their new class rings and under the direction of advisor promissory men, Larry Moore and Doug Bitt, the Junior class, as well as this year's Junior-Senior Prom, began the graduating class in June.

After the Junior Achievement Tests were administered to all Juniors in November and later they were given the opportunity to take Preliminary Scholarship Aptitude Tests to find out probable scores on the college required SAT.

In the field of sports, Juniors competed actively in the Junior-Senior Competition and Junior boys participated in all major sports during the year.

AMERICAN HISTORY is a Social Studies course. It is a survey on the history of the United States, from Colonial times to the present.

Students learn to understand the separation of powers between the state and federal government. The branches of the federal government included in the course is a study of the United States Constitution.

Students become familiar with, and understand, the actual functioning of the constitution as a system of laws over man. During the Junior year, all students must take and pass a Constitution test in order to be graduated.

COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES are continually upgrading entrance requirements. Therefore, it is advisable for students to know exactly what prerequisites he must meet to enter the college of his choice. Information about college entrance including requirements, College Board Examinations, and other college preparation by the counseling staff.

For students planning to attend college, the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test and then the Scholastic Aptitude Test is taken in the Junior year. These examinations are given by the College Entrance Examination Board at the high school.

Also in the Junior year, every student is required to take the School and College Ability Test and Sequential Tests of Educational Progress.

This is the final test series during the public school years and is the culmination of the testing program begun in the elementary years and continued through junior high school. The test is especially designed to help the student and the teacher to estimate the general ability to do work in the final school year. These tests are the only ones given by the school to every student.

Class of 826 Will Be Graduated in 1966.

AS THE YOUNGEST class in the 826 school, we are expected to show the future by making and carrying out plans.

Our W. R. Patterson class sponsor, Mr. J. L. Patterson, taught us a great deal by way of study and participation in class activities.

Recently, we have sponsored the English, World History, and Physical Education.

A number of dates were handled by the class officers: Mike Matthews, President; Tom Long, Vice President; G. J. Patterson, Recording Secretary; and K. J. K. Treasurer.

Graduates of 1966 look forward to two more years of college preparation, vocational training, and extracurricular activities.

Sophomore class officers: Mike Matthews, President; Tom Long, Vice President; G. J. Patterson, Recording Secretary; and K. J. K. Treasurer.

Treasurer: K. J. K. Recording Secretary: G. J. Patterson. Vice President: Tom Long. President: Mike Matthews.

1. The first part of the document is a list of names and addresses, which appears to be a directory or a list of contacts. The names are written in a cursive script, and the addresses are listed below them.

Clear out the desks and cupboards . . . You're welcome to the reed parties . . . Turn off the lights . . . Good bye and good night

Underclassmen editors Sue Price, Chris Mayer and Norma Lasser snatched from our phrases such as, "We're one sophomore short." They accomplished the remarkable feat of being over-
